

The Hubert V. Simmons Museum of Negro Leagues Baseball
Sponsors: A Black History Month Observance

The Story of the Baltimore Elite Giants Focusing on Sport and Society in the Age of Negro League Baseball

Featuring: Author Bob Luke, Historian Dr. Bob Hieronimus, and Negro Leagues Ambassador Ray Banks

Saturday, February 11, 2023
2:00 - 5:00 pm
10302 Grand Central Avenue,
Owings Mills, MD
Community Meeting Room, 5th floor

Enjoy this rare opportunity to hear first-hand revelations about the early years of Negro Leagues Baseball.
Some heretofore untold stories related to baseball greats:
Leon Day, Al Wilmore, Clinton Butch McCord, Ernest Burke, Pee Wee Butts and many more.

Surviving family members will be present and eager to interact with the audience.

Historian Ray Banks will have an extensive exhibit of baseball memorabilia and videos.

Light Refreshments, Music, Autographs
No Admission Fee. Open to the Public.

asimmons@smnlbinc.org or 410-597-9699

